

Course Overview

PPE is used in all areas of industry to protect employees from hazards. In health and social care PPE is worn to protect employees and the people being cared for and supported. Whilst PPE is covered in Infection Prevention and Control, there has been an increased focus on PPE during the COVID-19 pandemic.

This course aims to increase the awareness of PPE in social care. It covers how to correctly use it to keep everyone as safe as possible.

Course Content

1. What is PPE?
2. When is PPE used?
3. How to choose the right PPE
4. The right way to put on and take off PPE?
5. Storing, handling, wearing and disposing of PPE
6. Legislation and legal responsibilities
7. Special situations

Learner feedback:

“The best PPE training I have ever had in the 22 years of working in Social Care. I feel it’s so good we can take PPE out of H&Safety training as that only covers PPE lightly.”

Course Duration 30 minutes
