

Course Overview

Wow - a whole course about legislation! Not quite! Really it is about people, their rights and making sure that if they are unable to make choices for themselves that they are appropriately protected and supported. Anyone can lose capacity for a short period of time and knowing their rights in these situations is essential. This course will help you to understand this important area of care and support work.

Course Content

1. What is the Mental Capacity Act?
2. What the MCA means for care services and workers?
3. What does Mental Capacity mean?
4. Five key principles
5. Your assessment procedure
6. The test to assess capacity
7. Helping someone to make a decision
8. Best interests decisions
9. The role of the Public Guardian
10. Powers of Attorney
11. Advance Decisions
12. Independent Mental Capacity Advocates

Course Duration 30 minutes

Developed in partnership with a safeguarding expert.

Accessibility

To change your accessibility settings or translate the course into another language, sign into your Click account before taking this course.

Assessment and Certification

Sign in to your Click account before you take this course to take the assessment and immediately access/download your certificate upon successful completion.

Quality Marks