

Course Overview

Everyone has a duty to prevent or stop child abuse, especially people who work in social care - it does not matter who you are or where you work. This course will help you to recognise child abuse and neglect. It will give you indicators of abuse and ensure you know what to do if you are concerned.

Course Content

1. What is safeguarding children?
2. Why some children may be more vulnerable to harm or abuse
3. Main types of abuse
4. How do you know if a child is being abused?
5. What to do if child abuse is suspected
6. The referral process
7. Legislation and guidance

Course Duration 45 minutes

Developed in partnership with safeguarding experts.

Accessibility

To change your accessibility settings or translate the course into another language, sign into your Click account before taking this course.

Assessment and Certification

Sign in to your Click account before you take this course to take the assessment and immediately access/download your certificate upon successful completion.

Quality Marks